

2019 Warren Jones International Youth Regatta

Invitation Recipients

Local Competitors

- 1. Will Boulden from Royal Freshwater Bay Yacht Club (Western Australia) currently ranked 9th
- 2. Highest Placed Eligible Team at the 2018 JESS Match Cup
Hosted by Royal Freshwater Bay Yacht Club on Friday 1st, Saturday 2nd & Sunday 3rd December 2018
Local, National and International teams that expressed their interest by the closing date are eligible to receive the qualifying entry from the JESS Match Cup
- 3. Highest Placed Eligible Team at the 2019 Colin Mullins Youth Regatta
Hosted by Royal Perth Yacht Club on Friday, 25th January 2019
Local, National and International teams that expressed their interest by the closing date are eligible to receive the qualifying entry from the Colin Mullins Youth Regatta
- 4. Local Wild Card given to an Eligible Team by the Organising Authority by 25th December 2018
Local teams that expressed their interest by the closing date are eligible to receive the Local Wild Card – this will be awarded based on a range of factors including, but not limited to, performance, age and ability.

National Competitors

- 5. Harry Price from the Cruising Yacht Club of Australia (New South Wales) currently ranked 7th
- 6. Clare Costanzo from Royal Prince Alfred Yacht Club (New South Wales) currently ranked 39th
- 7. To Be Determined from the Cruising Yacht Club of Australia (New South Wales)
Either, James Hodgson, currently ranked 35th or Tom Grimes, currently ranked 36th

International Competitors

- 8. Jelmer van Beek from the Vereniging Watersport De Twee Provinciën (Netherlands) currently ranked 23rd
- 9. Johanna Bergqvist from Gothenburg Royal Yacht Club (Sweden) currently ranked 37th
- 10. To Be Determined from the Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron Performance Program (New Zealand)
Either Leo Takahashi, currently ranked 19th, Nick Egnot-Johnson, currently ranked 25th or James Wilson, currently ranked 29th
- 11. George Anyon from the Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron (New Zealand) currently ranked 44th
- 12. Charlie Welsh from Newport Harbour Yacht Club (United States of America) currently ranked 59th